Professor T'sou Ka Yin mailto:rlbtsou@cityu.edu.hk

Director
Language Information Sciences Research Center
City University of Hong Kong

才 才能 能

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor T'sou,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Lai Bong Yeung
mailto:cttomlai@cityu.edu.hk

Deputy Director
Language Information Sciences Research Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Lai,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Wang S. Y. mailto:eewsyw@cityu.edu.hk

Deputy Director
Language Information Sciences Research Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Wang,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Tung C. S. mailto:enptung@cityu.edu.hk

Deputy Director
Language Information Sciences Research Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Tung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor You Ru Jie
mailto:rlrjyou@cityu.edu.hk

Research Fellow
Language Information Sciences Research Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor You,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Olivia Kwong
mailto:rlolivia@cityu.edu.hk

Research Associate
Language Information Sciences Research Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Kwong,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Chan Yiu Keung

mailto:csykchan@cityu.edu.hk

Member
Language Information Sciences Research Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Chan,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Kwong Tak Wu
mailto:cssamk@cityu.edu.hk

Member
Language Information Sciences Research Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Kwong,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Lee Chan Hee mailto:cschlee@cityu.edu.hk

Member
Language Information Sciences Research Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Lee,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Liu Kwok Fai
mailto:ctgliu@cityu.edu.hk

Member
Language Information Sciences Research Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Liu,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Sin King Kui
mailto:ctsinkk@cityu.edu.hk

Member
Language Information Sciences Research Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Sin,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Zee Yun Yang
mailto:ctlzee@cityu.edu.hk

Member
Language Information Sciences Research Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Zee,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Y. Matthew Chen mailto:fhmychen@cityu.edu.hk

Member
Language Information Sciences Research Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Chen,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Zhang Longi mailto:ctlxzh@cityu.edu.hk

Director
Centre for Cross-Cultural Studies
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Zhang,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Tao Lai Po Wah mailto:sajulia@cityu.edu.hk

Director
Governance in Asia Research Centre
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Tao,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Cheung Bing Leung
mailto:sabltony@cityu.edu.hk

Associate Director
Governance in Asia Research Centre
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Cheung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Leung Kwan Kwok
mailto:k.k.leung@cityu.edu.hk

Director
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Leung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Au Liu Suk Ching mailto:ssscl@cityu.edu.hk

Assistant Professor
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Au,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Chan Kin Keung
mailto:ssdkchan@cityu.edu.hk

Associate Professor
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Chan,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Mr. Chan Wing Tai
mailto:sswtchan@cityu.edu.hk

Principal Consultant
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Chan,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Chan Kwok Hong mailto:sshong@cityu.edu.hk

Coordinator of China Project
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Chan,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Cheng Sheung Tak mailto:tak.cheng@cityu.edu.hk

Associate Professor
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Cheng,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Cheng Hon Kwong
mailto:sshkc@cityu.edu.hk

Lecturer
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Cheng,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Cheung Chau Kiu mailto:ssjacky@cityu.edu.hk

Consultant
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Cheung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Chong Ming Lin
mailto:ssachong@cityu.edu.hk

Assistant Professor
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Chong,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Kam Ping Kwong
mailto:sspkk@cityu.edu.hk

Associate Professor
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Kam,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Kwan Yui Huen mailto:ssak2911@cityu.edu.hk

Associate Director
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

才 才能 能
E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Kwan,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Lee Tak Yan
mailto:sstakyan@cityu.edu.hk

Associate Professor
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

才 才能 能

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Lee,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Lo Tit Wing
mailto:sstwl@cityu.edu.hk

Coordinator of Social Data Research Unit
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Lo,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Mr. Stephen Kun Ma
mailto:ss220888@cityu.edu.hk

Lecturer
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Ma,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Mr. Mak Hoi Wah
mailto:ssmakhw@cityu.edu.hk

Assistant Professor
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

才能
才能 能

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Mak,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Wong Sing Wing mailto:ssswwong@cityu.edu.hk

Assistant Professor
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

才 才能 能

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Wong,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Yue Xiao Dong
mailto:ssxdyue@cityu.edu.hk

Assistant Professor
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Yue,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Tse Wing Ling mailto:ssjwltse@cityu.edu.hk

Coordinator of Consultancy Project
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Tse,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Ngan Man Hung mailto:ssrangan@cityu.edu.hk

Coordinator of Tendered Projects
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Ngan,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at
http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Professor Kwok Kin Fun
mailto:ssjk@cityu.edu.hk

Associate Professor
Quality Evaluation Center
City University of Hong Kong

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23
Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Professor Kwok,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Mr. Benjamin Lee
mailto:leebensw@netvigator.com

Principal
Certified Public Accountants
Lee Sik Wai & Co.

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Lee,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

Klaus Colanero, Ph.D.

mailto:klaus.colanero@catamail.com

Member
Focolare Movement
Hong Kong

才能 才能 才能

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/09/23

Introduction and Invitation to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Colanero,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, and marketing. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commerical competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct queries and comments directly to me at any of the contact points provided in the foot of this letter.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04