

Mr. John Bohan

mailto:jbohan@fmo.esf.edu.hk

Acting Secretary and Financial Controller
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Bohan,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. John Tustin

mailto:jtustin@fmo.esf.edu.hk

Human Resources Director
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Tustin,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Graham Ranger

mailto:granger@fmo.esf.edu.hk

Education Officer for Secondary Education
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Ranger,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Stella Counsell

mailto:aeop@fmo.esf.edu.hk

School Improvement Officer
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Counsell,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Bonnie Lau
mailto:bonnie@ESFcampus.net

Centre Administrator
J. C. Sarah Roe Centre
English Schools Foundation

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Lau,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong
<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Caleb Knight

mailto:cknight@esf.edu.hk

Educational Psychologist
J. C. Sarah Roe Centre
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Knight,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. May Law

mailto:maylaw@ESFcampus.net

Resources Manager
J. C. Sarah Roe Centre
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Law,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Michael Wood

mailto:mwood@esf.edu.hk

ESF Senior Educational Psychologist
J. C. Sarah Roe Centre
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Wood,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Doug Taylor

mailto:doug@esfsall.net

ESF Self-Access Language Learning Centre
J. C. Sarah Roe Centre
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Taylor,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. D. James

mailto:school@mail.island.edu.hk

Principal
Island School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. James,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. J. Wray mailto:head@sis.edu.hk

Principal
South Island School
English Schools Foundation

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Wray,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong
<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Brian Driver

mailto:wis@wis.edu.hk

Principal
West Island School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Driver,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Vanessa Bingham

mailto:admissions@kennedy.edu.hk

Principal
Kennedy School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Bingham,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. A. Wilkinson

mailto:office@bradbury.myschools.net

Principal
Bradbury School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Wilkinson,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. John Brewster

mailto:principal@peakschool.net

Acting Principal
Peak School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Brewster,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. D. J. Harrison

mailto:qbsoff@qbs.edu.hk

Principal
Quarry Bay School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Harrison,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. E. Harvey

mailto:enquiry@glenealy.edu.hk

Principal
Glenealy School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Harvey,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Denis Cocks

mailto:office@kgv.edu.hk

Principal
King George V School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Cocks,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. M. J. Doherty

mailto:mdoherty@jcsrs.edu.hk

Principal

J. C. Sarah Roe School

English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Doherty,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Michael Tanner

mailto:bhs@bhs.esf.edu.hk

Principal
Beacon Hill School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Tanner,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. D. S. Cottam mailto:dsc@shatincollege.edu.hk

Principal
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Cottam,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong
<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. B. G. Lewis

mailto:info@sjs.edu.hk

Principal
Shatin Junior School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Lewis,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Katie Jones

mailto:admiss@bauhinia.edu.hk

Head of School
Bauhinia Primary School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Jones,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Marian Eastwood, M. A. mailto:info@cwbs.edu.hk

Principal
Clearwater Bay School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Eastwood,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong
<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. G. T. Davies

mailto:office@perth.kjs.edu.hk

Principal
Kowloon Junior School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Davies,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Cheung Siu Ming

mailto:scheung@phoenix.edu.hk

Principal
Phoenix International School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Cheung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Sylvia M. Ager mailto:sma@shatincollege.edu.hk

English Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Ager,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong
<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Michael Alexander mailto:ma@shatincollege.edu.hk

French and German Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Alexander,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong
<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Tamra Bradbury

mailto:tb@shatincollege.edu.hk

English and Business Education Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Bradbury,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Lisa J. Craig-Cunningham

mailto:ljc@shatincollege.edu.hk

English Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Craig,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Amanda Harris

mailto:ah@shatincollege.edu.hk

English Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Harris,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Flicky J. Higginbottom

mailto:fjh@shatincollege.edu.hk

English Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Higginbottom,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Marshall Hughes

mailto: mh@shatincollege.edu.hk

Assistant Principal
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Hughes,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto: hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Peter Langford-Smith

mailto:pl@shatincollege.edu.hk

English Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Langford,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Sally Lim

mailto:scl@shatincollege.edu.hk

Mandarin Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Lim,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Geoffrey J. Lofthouse

mailto:gjl@shatincollege.edu.hk

Assistant Principal
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Lofthouse,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Patricia Martin

mailto:pm@shatincollege.edu.hk

English and History Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Martin,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Elaine S. McIntyre

mailto:esm@shatincollege.edu.hk

English Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. McIntyre,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Lee F. O'Leary

mailto:lfo@shatincollege.edu.hk

Spanish and French Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Lee,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Niu Jia N.

mailto:jnn@shatincollege.edu.hk

Mandarin Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Niu,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Katia Pitarch

mailto:kp@shatincollege.edu.hk

French and Spanish Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Pitarch,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Christine M. Rowlands

mailto:cmr@shatincollege.edu.hk

Assistant Principal
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Rowlands,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Danielle Shaw

mailto:ds@shatincollege.edu.hk

French Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Shaw,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. John Shaw
mailto:js@shatincollege.edu.hk

English Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Shaw,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong
<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Daniel J. Stamp

mailto:djs@shatincollege.edu.hk

English Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Stamp,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Carolyn J. Tattam

mailto:cjt@shatincollege.edu.hk

French and German Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Carolyn,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Adrian R. Tilley

mailto:art@shatincollege.edu.hk

English Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Tilley,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Imelda V. Villenguez

mailto: jvv@shatincollege.edu.hk

English Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Villenguez,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto: hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Lesley A. Watkins

mailto:law@shatincollege.edu.hk

French Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Watkins,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Carol A. Westwood mailto:caw@shatincollege.edu.hk

English Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Westwood,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong
<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Danielle Yang

mailto:dy@shatincollege.edu.hk

Mandarin Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Yang,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Margaret E. Ducie

mailto:med@shatincollege.edu.hk

Economics and Business Education Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Ducie,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Paul Hoang

mailto: ph@shatincollege.edu.hk

Economics and Business Education Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Hoang,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto: hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Richard A. Overens

mailto:rao@shatincollege.edu.hk

Geography Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Overens,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Susan Tonin
mailto:st@shatincollege.edu.hk

Economics and Business Education Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Tonin,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong
<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Tony White
mailto:tw@shatincollege.edu.hk

Geography Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. White,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong
<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Sara K. Wilson

mailto:skw@shatincollege.edu.hk

Economics and Business Education Teacher
Shatin College
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Wilson,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Johanne Caulfield mailto: jcaulfield@phoenix.edu.hk

Head of Upper School
Phoenix International School
English Schools Foundation

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Caulfield,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong
<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto: hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Derek Roberts

mailto:droberts@phoenix.edu.hk

Head of Middle School
Phoenix International School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Roberts,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Marguerite Lopez

mailto:mlopez@phoenix.edu.hk

Head of Primary School
Phoenix International School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Lopez,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Janny Law

mailto:jlaw@phoenix.edu.hk

Teacher

Phoenix International School

English Schools Foundation

East
Asian
Research and Translation in
Hong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Law,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Maggie Wu

mailto:mwu@phoenix.edu.hk

Middle and Senior Level Chinese Teacher
Phoenix International School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Wu,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Christine Tong

mailto:ctong@phoenix.edu.hk

Primary Level Chinese Teacher
Phoenix International School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Tong,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Lois Ma

mailto:lma@phoenix.edu.hk

Chinese Primary Level Teacher
Phoenix International School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Ma,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Maggie Yuen

mailto:myuen@phoenix.edu.hk

Primary Level Chinese Teacher
Phoenix International School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Yuen,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Mei Cheung
mailto:mcheung@phoenix.edu.hk

Primary Level Chinese Teacher
Phoenix International School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Cheung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong
<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Jacinta Webb

mailto: jwebb@phoenix.edu.hk

English as a Second Language Teacher
Phoenix International School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Webb,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto: hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Therese Owen

mailto:towen@phoenix.edu.hk

English as a Second Language Teacher
Phoenix International School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Owen,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Aletha Rossiter

mailto:arossiter@phoenix.edu.hk

English and Social Studies Teacher
Phoenix International School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Rossiter,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Jeannine Wong

mailto: jwong@phoenix.edu.hk

French Teacher
Phoenix International School
English Schools Foundation

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/12

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Wong,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto: hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04