

Dr. Tong Ho Kin

mailto:hktong@ied.edu.hk

Acting Department Head
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Tong,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Ho Kwok Cheung

mailto:kcho@ied.edu.hk

Deputy Head
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Ho,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Lee How Chung

mailto:hclee@ied.edu.hk

Deputy Head
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Lee,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Chen Xuec Hao

mailto:xchen@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Chen,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Cheng Chung Kai

mailto:ckcheng@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Cheng,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Cheung Lin Hong

mailto:linhong@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Cheung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Lau Hing Wah

mailto:hwlau@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Lau,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Lee Kwai Sang

mailto:kslee@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Lee,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Leung Man Yee

mailto:myleung@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Leung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Man Ying Ling

mailto:ylman@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Man,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Ng Shuk Ying

mailto:ngsy@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Ng,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Pak Wan Hoi

mailto:whpak@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Pak,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Dory Poon

mailto:dpoa@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Poon,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Poon Kin Chung

mailto:kcpoon@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Poon,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Shi Jian Guo

mailto:jshi@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Shi,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Soon Ai Ling

mailto:alsoon@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Soon,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Tang Shing Fun

mailto:sftang@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Tang,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Cheung Hon Ching

mailto:hccheung@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Cheung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Cheung Sau Hung

mailto:shcheung@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Cheung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Chung Kam Chun

mailto:kcchung@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Chung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Ho Chi Hang

mailto:chho@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Ho,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Kwok See Ho

mailto:shkwok@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Kwok,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Lai Siu Ming

mailto:smlai@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Lai,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Lam Hon Sing

mailto:hslam@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Lam,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Lau Se Yiu

mailto:sylau@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Lau,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Leung Chun Wai

mailto:hleung@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Leung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Wong Yiu Keung

mailto:ykkwong@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Wong,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Yeung Kwai Hong

mailto:khyeung@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Yeung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Au Yuen Yee

mailto:maau@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Au,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Chan Shuk Ching

mailto:escchan@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Chan,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Cheung Kwok Chung

mailto:kccheung@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Cheung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Cheung Yee Man

mailto:ymcheung@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Cheung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Chow Lai Ying

mailto:lychow@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Chow,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Fu Kin Hung

mailto:khfu@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Fu,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Fung Chui Yee

mailto:cyefung@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Fung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Ip Su Lin

mailto:slcheung@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Ip,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Kwan Che Ying

mailto:cykwan@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Kwan,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Leung Pui Wan

mailto:pleung@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Leung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Liu Pui Lee

mailto:plliu@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Liu,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Lo Hing Kiu

mailto:hklo@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Lo,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Lo Sau Chong

mailto:sclo@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Lo,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Mok Suk Yee

mailto:symok@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Mok,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Sze To Sau May

mailto:smszeto@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Sze,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Tse Suet Mui

mailto:smtse@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Tse,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Wong Yan Nar

mailto:ynwong@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Wong,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Yu Yuen Yee

mailto:fryu@ied.edu.hk

Lecturer

Department of Chinese

Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Yu,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann

HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Lee Yuk Mui

mailto:ymlee@ied.edu.hk

Principal Lecturer
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Lee,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Tong Shau Ling

mailto:sltong@ied.edu.hk

Principal Lecturer
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Tong,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Cheng Pui Fong

mailto:pfcheng@ied.edu.hk

Senior Lecturer
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Cheng,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Fok Yuk Ying

mailto:yyfok@ied.edu.hk

Senior Lecturer
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Fok,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Fung Shu Fun

mailto:sffung@ied.edu.hk

Senior Lecturer
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Fung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Ho Man Sing

mailto:msho@ied.edu.hk

Senior Lecturer
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Ho,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Tse Ka Ho

mailto:kahotse@ied.edu.hk

Senior Lecturer
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Tse,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Wong Leung Wo

mailto:leungwo@ied.edu.hk

Senior Lecturer
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Wong,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Dr. Zhang Ben Nan

mailto:bzhang@ied.edu.hk

Senior Lecturer
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Dr. Zhang,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Mr. Cheung Wing Tak

mailto:wtcheung@ied.edu.hk

Senior Lecturer
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Mr. Cheung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Keung Pui Ling

mailto:plkeung@ied.edu.hk

Senior Lecturer
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Keung,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. So Kit Yuk

mailto:kyso@ied.edu.hk

Senior Lecturer
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. So,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04

Ms. Wong Kit Ching

mailto:kcchan@ied.edu.hk

Senior Lecturer
Department of Chinese
Hong Kong Institute of Education

E ast
A sian
R esearch and
T ranslation in
H ong Kong

Hong Kong, 03/10/14

Re: Introduction to the HKLNA-Project

Dear Ms. Wong,

The HKLNA-Project is a multidisciplinary project that draws on expertise from economics, socio-linguistics, language education, statistics, political science, psychology, demography, marketing and other fields. Its principal objective is to examine the soundness (or unsoundness) of East Asia's universal English language requirement as a means for the promotion of cross-cultural communication, educational enlightenment, technology transfer, and commercial competitiveness in East Asia. As EARTH is a Hong Kong firm the project's natural starting point is Hong Kong -- hence, the name Hong Kong Language Needs Assessment Project. The following provides you with a direct link to the project's first research proposal

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/documents/proposals/030828-1.pdf>

More information about the HKLNA-Project itself can be obtained at

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/current/hklna/index.html>

Once contact among interested parties has been established a general meeting will be held in order to answer questions about the proposed research and allow interested and potential participants an opportunity to meet with one another and me. Certainly your input with regard to the project's first proposal is and will be heartily welcomed. Please direct all queries, comments, suggestions, letters of endorsement, references, and other support directly to me at any of the contact points provided below.

EARTH welcomes you and your feedback!

Sincerely,

橋 守

R. A. Stegemann
HKLNA-Project Director

East Asian Research and Translation in Hong Kong

<http://homepage.mac.com/moogoonghwa/earth/>

mailto:hsmr@pacific.net.hk • tel/fax: 852 2630 0349
H2-30 Sunshine City • No. 18 On Luk Street • Ma On Shan
Shatin • New Territories
Hong Kong • China 04